VOL. XIV--NO. 80. RALEIGH, N. C. SUNDAY MORNING DECEMBER 1, 1878. $5.00 PER ANNUM

Sam. Tilden's Law Suit and its Results.

By Telegraph to the News.

NEW YORK, Nov. 30.—Chief Justice Choate, in the U. S. Court, to-day, rendered a lengthy decision in the case of the U. S. against Samuel J. Tilden. In his opening, he says: "This motion on the part of plaintiffs to have certain depositions which have been taken in the cause under section 863 of the Revised Statutes was opened and filed." Council for defendant objected, on the ground that under section 865 such deposition can only be opened at the trial and by consent. His honor reviews various points that have been raised and concludes as follows: "While it is possible that in some cases the power to take testimony may be abused for the purpose of publishing scandalous matter yet on the other hand, the power of the other party to forbid the opening of deposition until the trial may lead to abuses much worse. Thus if this right has existed under the act of 1869, the party taking deposition even without notice, before the recent change of statutes requiring notice, might have kept this deposition secret till the trial and then have used testimony of a witness whom the other side had not seen nor had an opportunity to cross examine, and whose testimony he would have no opportunity perhaps to rebut. So also a party taking dep sitions which have been sealed up and certified by a magistrate, might be prevented till trial from ascertaining whether they were certified and returned in due form and would have no opportunity of being mistaken in that respect corrected or obviated by retaking depositions. These and other inconveniences far outweigh the inconvenience and possible injury to be done by publication and fully justify the practice which has been referred to and is embodied in the rules. Upon the whole, I think the statute will be entirely satisfactory by deposition being opened in presence of the parties or their attorney in open court. Motion granted.

The Cremation Question.

By Cable to the News.

NEWRICH, Nov. 30.—The Bavarian authorities have asked the opinions of Protestant Catholics and Israelite congregations and the board of health, on the subject of permissive cremation. The Catholics will have nothing to do with it. The Israelites refuse to express an opinion. The Protestants say it would only imply change of directions in the liturgy. The board of health recommend cremation in the following contingencies: First, after battles, second, during epidemics, third, for conveyance of remains to distant parts, fourth, where the soil is unsuitable for burial purposes. The authorities have postponed their decision of the question.

A Hostile Tribe in the Khyber Pass.

By Cable to the News.

LAHORE, Nov: 30.—The signal party under Major Pearson, was attacked by Afreedies one of the Hill tribes, yesterday, on a hill opposite the Khyber Pass. Two men of Major Pearson's troop of horse were killed and one wounded. The Khyber Pass is blocked. Several convoys have returned. A company of the 9th regiment and the 45th Sikhs has been sent to the scene of action, whence firing has been heard, but the result is unknown. Continued and heavy firing is also heard near Ali Musjid since yesterday. Trouble with the Afreedies is not serious as only tribe is hostile.

The Message of South Carolina's Governor.

Governor Simpson, of South Carolina, has sent in his annual message to the General Assembly. He emphasizes the importance of extending and perfecting the free educational system, and shows that under Conservative administration a good deal is being done in this direction. It is stated that 116,293 children attended the public schools last year, an increase of nearly 14,000 over the number reported in 1877. The reopening of the State University, which was crippled by Republican robberies, is recommended as of the greatest importance. Nothing is said of Federal relations. The Governor congratulates the people that good government has now been accomplished in South Carolina, "home rule having rescued the State from the hands of political marauders," and the people are urged to the continued observance of "those great and wise principles of justice and equal protection to all which have so eminently distinguished the present administration."

Diamond Joe.

From the Dubuque Times

"What is that?" Asked a gentleman at the Julien, Sunday, alluding to a man who had just arisen from the dinner-table. "Why, that's Jo Reynolds—better known as 'Diamond Jo'—owner of the Diamond Jo line of steamers; where do you live that you don't know him?" remarked the steward. An odd-looking man, to be sure, and the last that would be taken for one of the shrewdest in the Northwest. Some persons have perhaps imagined Diamond Jo to be a little on the Jim Fisk style, but this is altogether wrong. Jo does wear an immense diamond bay window on his shirt front, but this is the only jewel in his make-up that resembles the late Fisk. He dresses plainly, and, when reading, wears glasses. He is tall and gaunt, walks lame and has a medium sized head, while his hair is gray. He is a hard worker, and was not born rich, but has become so by unremitting industry. He is the owner of the Hot Springs Narrow Gauge Railroad, and it is reported that he cleared over $300,000 in speculations in one day last year.

The Absurdity of the Grant Programme.

Washington Correspondence Springfield Republican.

It is astonishing how the Grant admirers keep harping on their hero for '880. What do they think? That General Grant is the only statesman in the Republican party? That the country wants soldiers sent down into the South to undo all that has been accomplished my wholesawing them? And now is the thing to be done? Do they suppose the men whom he ostracised are coming to his support? That after seeing the reforms inaugurated which they in vain sought to have effected with Grant as President; and after witnessing the purification and increased prosperity of the party under the administration of his successor—a man of their own ideas—they are going back to Grant? Are going to say: We were wrong and Grant and his advisers were right? There is a coolness in the suggestion that is refreshing in this mild weather. If General Grant had turned his army over to Lee at Appomattox it would have been about as novel a spectacle as it would be, in 1880, to see the Liberal Republicans and Independents supporting Grant for President. And yet there are hundreds here who profess to believe that such a sight is certain to be witnessed. There are others who are certain the still more absurd notion that General Grant could be elected without the support of the Independents.

A Modest Tramp.

New Hsven Register.

The genteel tramp mounted the landing and rang the front door bell. "Would you be so kind," said he, as the mistress of the house appeared at the door, "to exchange this piece of pie for a couple of hard boiled eggs and a cup of coffee? I am of a dyspeptic turn, and this is the ninth quarter of a mince pie that I have tried to go through this morning. I can't stand it, it's too much of a sameness. If you accept my proposition, you can also have the satisfaction of telling the neighbors that Mrs. Robinson, across the street, uses allspice instead of cloves, and that the under crust is very slack-baked." The temptation was great, and the genteel tramp had his eggs and coffee and a large triangle of frosted cake as a bonus.

The Queen Presides

The Queen of England presided at the last Cabinet meeting. This approach to personal government will probably be displeasing to the British people, who are extremely sensitive upon the point. But the new-born warlike ardor of the Queen and her hostility to Russia, will not permit her to remain in the background at this juncture, however much her active presence in public affairs may antagonize the conservative settlement of her subjects.

The Dispute in Maine.

The question of who shall be Governor of Maine is to be determined by the Senate of that State which has a Republican majority. The Senate is restricted in its choice to one of two names sent to it by the House, which has a Democratic Greenback majority, and will send in the names of the Democratic and Greenback candidates for Governor. Notwithstanding the Democratic candidate is the choice of the people, he is not the choice of the Republican Senators, who prefer anything before Democracy. They will elect the Greenbacker.

INCREASED depression of business, the stoppage of manufactories and throwing of thousands of the laboring classes out of work, is the news that every succeeding day brings from England. This will be a winter of terrible hardship to England's poor. Everywhere the supply of goods exceeds the demand. The great problem pressing for solution on both sides of the Atlantic is means of turning into new channels of industry the hands that machinery has relegated to idleness.

THE grave-robbing business has become important to men out of employments. The widow of Mr. Powers, the Philadelphia millionaire, has employed four men to guard the tomb of her husband for two years. Two of them will watch during the nigh, and the other two will stand guard throughout the day.

Congress meets to-morrow. In some respects it will be one of the most exciting sessions ever held.

METHODISTS IN COUNCIL.

Session of the North Carolina Annual Conference-Third Day.

Charlotte Observer Nov. 30th.

The conference re-assembled yesterday morning a little after 9 o'clock and was opened with divine services conducted by Rev. P. J. Carraway.

The secretary called the roll of delegates, and the following, not hitherto reported as present, answered to their names:

Ministers—Joseph H Wheeler, Henry Gray, Ira T Wobe, John Tillett, Nathan A Hooker, T Page Ricaud, Nathan H D Wilson, Joseph B Martin, L S Burkhead, John W North, Zebedee Rush, Henry H Gibbons, Clarendon M Pepper, James S Erwin, Isaac W Avent, John N Andrews, Simeon D Peeler, Oscar J Brent, Moses J Hunt, John W Puett, Marcus C Thomas, James W Wheeler, Wm C Gannon, Samuel V Hoyle, John R Brooks, Peter L Herman, Robt T N Stephenson, Franklin H Wood, Wm M Moore, Alex R Raven, Edwin A Yates, John C Hartsell, Wm. C Wilson, Joseph R Griffith, Wm H Cali, Squire M Davis, Maxwell H Hoyle, Wm D Lee, James Mahoney, Joseph J Renn, Hugh F Wiley, Robert M Brown, Lemuel H Gibbons, Junius T Harris, Frank L Reid, Miles Foy, John T Bagwell, J C Crisp, Jeremiah Johnson, Lucius E Stacy, P F W Summey, Wm H Watkins, C A Gault, M W Boyles, Nathaniel M Jurney, Thomas L Hoyle, N S Norton, Thomas C Campbell.

Rev. Dr. Closs, on the part of the presiding elders, reported the following as the board of missions for the next year:

Clerical—W S Black, J H Wheeler, A D Betts, W C Willson, H T Hudson, T W Guthrie, J W Jenkins, T P Ricaud, J T Bagwell, A R Raven.

Laymen—W C Doub, A Walton, J W Reid, J B Connelly, J A Claywell, T C Smith, G S Cole, J E Leggett, E B Borden, T H Gatlin.

The hour for receiving the visitors from the Presbyterian synod having arrived, Rev. E H. Harding, Gen. R D. Johnston and Gen. Jno. A. Young, were introduced. Mr. Harding presented the memorial passed by the last synod, touching the violations of the Sabbath by railroad corporations in the State, and addressed the Conference briefly, stating that they had been appointed by the synod to appear before the conference and ask its co-operation as a body in inducing the Legislature to pass laws to prevent the desecration of the day. He remarked that the extent of these violations of the sanctity of the Sabbath by the running and unloading of freight trains, could not be imagined by persons who had not witnessed their operations in the larger cities. He had been informed that there were such laws in other States, and the Presbyterians wished to gain the influence of so large a proportion of the Christian people of the State as was included in the Methodist denomination, in having the same laws enacted in North Carolina. He referred to the fact that the matter had been presented to the Baptist convention, but they had not seen fit to petition the Legislature as a body, but heartily endorsed and commended the efforts of the Presbyterians in this direction to the Baptist people of the State.

On motion of Elder Babbitt, the matter was referred to the committee on observance of the Sabbath, already provided for.

The Bishop expressed his gratification at receiving the visitors, and Rev. Dr. Craven heartily endorsed their efforts.

The bishop then announced the committee on the observance of the Sabbath: Rev. E A Yates, Rev. H T Hudson and E J Lilly, Esq.

After the usual examinations, the following were admitted into the second year: N E Cobleane, J C Rowe, P L Groom, Jas H Cannon, W P McCorkle, C M Gentry, R C Beaman.

The following passed on their characters and were continued in the first year: Samuel McLeod, A P Tyer, T J Browning.

The following local preachers were elected elders: Geo. W. Neal, of the Rockingham circuit; Jas. E. Bristowe, of the Neuse circuit; Jno. A. B. Kirkpatrick, of the Roanoke circuit.

Rev. C. H. Wiley, agent of the American Bible Society, was introduced to the Convention and addressed it at some length on the plan of distributing copies of the Bible, mentioning among other things that the cash system had been adopted in relation to auxiliaries, which plan was working very satisfactorily. He gave a general report of his work, which was of a very encouraging character.

Rev. Dr. Fitzgerald, editor of the Nashville Christian Advocate, was next introduced. He referred with considerable feeling to the pleasure which it afforded him to look once more upon the faces of the members of the North Carolina Conference. This was his native State, and the older he grew the stronger became his attachment to it and the desire to be buried beneath its soil. He said he was here to represent the Advocate, and also, as a measure to fill the place of Dr. McFerrin, agent of the publishing house, who could not be present. He said that he was gratified that the Advocate was rapidly growing in circulation; it had increased at the rate of one thousand subscribers per month, and that he was now striving to raise the entire circulation to 30,000.

He was invited to a seat in the Conference.

John M. Moring, of Chatham county, fraternal messenger of the Christian Church in North Carolina and Virginia, made a few remarks and was answered by Rev. Dr. Closs on the part of the Conference.

Rev. Dr. Wilson, missionary agent, then addressed the conference at some length. He said the missionary board was sadly in need of funds to carry on the work. The churches had been very derelict in their duty. Notwithstanding the receipts from the annual conferences had just come in, the board of missions had ordered all drafts to be held for the present, and was now $5,000 in debt. He was not a believer in the assessment plan; the churches didn't understand that their assessments were the minimum that was expected of them. The pastors were deficient, and the people, as a general thing, were too careless and indifferent on this subject. The church which had its luxurious appointments; elegant pastor and fine music, and did not contribute to this cause, was a dead church. It was the leading principal of the Methodist Church. The North Carolina Conference was assessed only $5,000 for this cause; it ought to give $20,000. The speech was very pointed and was several times applauded.

Rev. Dr. Craven read the annual report of the trustees of Trinity College, showing that the debt of the institution was $10,000—$1,000 more than it was two years ago, the increase having been produced by the interest on the notes, which had been paid, but with borrowed money. The resources of the college were $40,000 in the buildings and $8,000 in notes and subscriptions, a large proportion of which could not now nor ever be collected. The college was doing, and had done a fine work, having graduated 225 young men, many of whom now hold prominent positions in all professions and different lines of business: at least one-fifth of the members of the conference received education there. It urged upon conference the necessity of taking active measures to place the college on an equal footing with other similar institutions. The most pressing need just now was the sum of $490 to finish some of the rooms in the new building, which were very much needed. The president's report showed that there were 186 students at the college last year, and expressed the opinion that the number of matriculates this year would reach about the same number.

Rev. Dr. T. M. Jones, president of the Greensboro Female College, read the report from that institution. He regretted to say that the outlook was not encouraging. The number of our pupils matriculated this year was 81.

The Secretary read the proposition from the General Conference to reduce the ratio of representation from the annual conferences from one delegate to every 28 members to one from every 36 members.

The question was decided by a rising vote which resulted, yeas, 154; nays, h.

Fred. Douglass Advises Colored People.

From a Lecture.

Douglass went on to speak of the peculiarities of the negro and said that if you want to put a colored man to sleep, put a book in his hand. And so with the colored ministers and colored legislators. They neglect study and pray for the spirit, and the consequence was they did not know what they were going to say when they got up on their feet, or what they were saying while speaking, nor what they had said when they got through. No one could afford to wait until some one put a spring-board under his feet. The colored race must use brain sweat if they would come up from the shadow under which they now rested as a people. When he had been asked by his white friends "What shall we do with the negro?" he had always replied, "Do nothing; let him alone and give him fair play. The dotag something has already played the mischief with him. This is all we ask." The American people are rapidly becoming a nation of pleasure-seekers, and the colored people come directly in contact with this element at the fashionable watering-places. They imitate them. They dress well and look well on the streets. When they get three or four dollars in their pockets, they want to go somewhere, on steamboat excursions and railroads, and some of them are always going. But they should remember that they are no longer children, to act as children but men, endowed with the dignity and nobility of manhood, and they should act as men.

The Decrease of Our Commerce.

Report of the Secretary of the Navy.

The results show that the earnings and profits of this ocean carrying trade have been transferred, and that vessels sailing under foreign flags have now within 2 per cent. of what American vessels had before the war. This is owing in great measure to the increasing use of foreign iron steamships, which have driven nearly all our merchant vessels from the sea, and with which we cannot successfully compete until our own home industries are stimulated in the same direction. It would seem that our actual loss of $582,174,084 within ten years, as shown by the foregoing calculation, is sufficient admonition to secure this. At the ratio stated our farmers, planters, manufacturers, and all others engaged in our numerous industries will, if this condition of things remains unchanged, soon be at the mercy of foreign ship owners, who will possess the power because of the absence of competition, to put up their ocean freights to ruinous prices, and thus impose upon our people even heavier and more oppressive burdens than they have hitherto borne.

Canadians Crazy over their Lorne and Louise.

Philadelphia Times.

It has been surmised that one reason, and possibly the controlling one, for sending the Marquis of Lorne to Canada was to make his situation in relation to the superior rank of his wife somewhat more comfortable. At a distance from the awful pomp and circumstance of the Court and its traditional usages the despotism exercised by Lord Chamberlains, gold sticks in waiting and their innumerable company of sticklers for high etiquette, might be expected to be somewhat relaxed, permitting a man at odd moments to be of as much account as his wife. But thus far this expectation does not promise fulfilment. The Canadians are awfully struck with the presence of the Princess; the blood royal is it that makes their head dizzy, and from the moment the Sarmatian entered Halifax harbor the light of the new Governor General has been quite obscured by the effulgence that accompanied the Princess and her brother, the Royal Duke of Edinburg.

The Terror of Socialism in Europe.

Philadelphia Times.

Count Andrassy's attempted assassination is not a fresh outbreak of what Lord Beaconsfield has styled the "moaning wind in Europe," Socialism; it is strictly the result of the excited condition of public opinion in regard to questions of Imperial policy. Austria is in a condition of violent ebullition; is bubbling over with bitterly pugnacious party feeling. The occupation of Bosnia, in direct opposition to the will of a very large portion of the people, has shaken the Empire to its very centre, and matters now have been brought to a crisis by the defiant action of the Austrian Delegation. The attempt to blow up the Chancellor is not, probably, the culmination of any conspiracy; it is simply a rather pronounced manifestation of personal ill-will toward the policy that the Chancellor has marked out and is battling hard to carry through.

The Dallas Commercial claims that Texas exports this year will bring back $60,000,000.

Report of the Committee on Oxford Orphan Asylum.

H. H. Munson, Grand Master of Masons of North Carolina.

SIR: The undersigned committee, who were appointed to visit the Oxford Orphan Asylum, examine into its condition and management, and to ascertain and report whether it is expedient and practicable to continue the institution, submit the following report:

On the 20th inst., we visited the Asylum where we were received by the superintendent and his capable and accomplished corps of lady assistants, who cheerfully and promptly rendered all possible assistance in making our investigation.

The tidy appearance, cheerful faces, healthy complexions and easy deportment of the orphans clearly indicated that they have received the most kind and careful attention morally and physically. The condition of the dormitories, section, dining and cooking rooms, the buildings, grounds and vegetable gardens, and the general management of the institution, fully satisfied us that it is in safe and capable hands, directed by a practical wisdom and an enthusiastic devotion to the cause it is intended to promote. Although we made a minute and critical examination of the condition and conduct of the Asylum, and obtained decided impressions regarding the same yet we did not rest satisfied with, or base our conclusions wholly upon what we were able to discover in our visit. We conferred freely with several of the leading and most intelligent citizens of Oxford, and obtained from them valuable and satisfactory information concerning the asylum, its conduct, the demeanor of the orphans, and the general esteem in which it is held by the people among whom it is situated.

We were gratified to discover that notwithstanding the citizens of Oxford and the county of Granville are sometimes taxed in its support beyond their due proportion, yet they are not by any means weary in well doing, but feel the liveliest interest in the prosperity of the asylum and the welfare of the orphan inmates, and attest the same by constant and liberal contributions. This interest on their part cannot be attributed to any selfish motives, for but little, if any, pecuniary good accrues to the town and section; but it must be wholly ascribed to their deep seated convictions, gained from close and daily observation, that the asylum is a necessity, and fully meeting the end of its establishment.

Of the Superintendent, Mr. J. H. Mills, we deem it unnecessary to say more than to call attention to the fact that at the very inception of this work, which was then believed by many to be chimerical, he abandoned a good position, and with but small means at his disposal and without assurance of personal compensation other than the reward of a good conscience, he visited various parts of the State, and with faith undaunted and charity unbounded gathered the little orphans whose condition appealed for succor. With the contributions received from the benevolent of the State, often in but small amounts he has had provided for these orphans clothing, homes, mental culture and moral and religious training. He has exercised that rigid economy which his limited resources demand, and, though the food provided is wholesome and not doled out with a parsimonious hand, yet there is no extravagance, and the fragments are so gathered up that there is no waste or loss. Mr. Mills is thoroughly devoted to the interests of the Asylum, anxious for the welfare and comfort of the orphans, and kind, considerate and gentle, yet firm in the enforcement of discipline. It is gratifying to observe the affectionate demeanor of the orphans toward Mr. Mills and the grateful appreciation which they evidently have of the care and kindness bestowed upon them.

Of the Matron, Mrs. Robards, we deem it not improper to say that her manner and benevolent expression, the tidy appearance of the orphans, and their attachment to her ("they all call me Grandma" she remarked, "and they are the best children I ever saw") clearly manifesting the eminent qualification for the responsible and delicate position she so satisfactorily fills. And of the teachers it may be truthfully said that good judgment has been exercised in their selection. Educated, refined and accomplished, their talents as teachers would command more lucrative positions, and it is manifest that they would not willingly discharge their onerous duties and submit to the plain fare for the small compensation they now receive, but that their sympathies are enlisted in behalf of the unfortunate and dependent and their meagrge salaries supplemenetd by that richest of rewards—the consciousness of doing good. One of the young ladies, now employed in teaching, was formerly an inmate of this Asylum and by the aid of friends completed her education at Greensboro Female College, and now, cultured and accomplished, she has returned to assist in the benevolent work at the inadequate compensation of $5 per month. This instance furnishes strong, touching and practical proof of the good which the Asylum is capable of doing.

Since the opening of the institution it has received 448 orphans, average per annum being one hundred and thirty. Of these 218 have neither father nor mother living. About one third have been the children of Masons. The number now in the asylum is 126. In reply to an inquiry as to what proportion of the orphans had received eligible situations upon leaving the institution, the Superintendent replied that all had and the demand was far greater than he could fill. Many of the children are adopted by persons who have no children of their own. Nineteen have been adopted into respectable and desirable homes. Three such applications were filled during our visit and we can testify to the happiness seemingly in store for the children who were supplied to the applicants.

As is known the Grand Lodge discouraged the idea of attempting to teach them trades while at the asylum, for the reason that it had not adequate means to erect suitable work-shops, buy tools, and secure the services of competent workmen; and for the further reason that the tender age at which the children are received and discharged, viz: from 8 to 16 years, renders it impossible for them to attain any degree of proficiency while at the asylum. Still it has been the uniform practice of the Superintendent, upon securing homes for the children, to prefer situations where they can learn trades. Sixteen have been put to the learning of useful trades since the opening of the institution.

It is a striking proof of the healthfulness of the locality, and care bestowed upon the orphans, that only six of the four hundred and forty-eight enrolled have died at the Asylum. At present there is not a single case of sickness among the orphans. The physicians of the town readily and cheerfully respond to calls whenever made, and make no charge for their attendance or prescriptions.

The spiritual interest of the children also receives careful attention, and religious exercises are regularly held, the ministers of Oxford alternating in conducting the same. Six religious denominations are represented by the teachers.

The dormitories occupied by the girls are under the supervision of the teachers. The boys and girls eat in the same room but at separate tables. But two servants are employed in or about the institution, and they only do the laundry work. All other work and duties are performed by the children. The fuel used is purchased standing, and cut and hauled by the boys.

There are 100 acres of land comprising the Asylum tract, valued at $5 000. The valuation of the buildings is $30,000. The furniture in the buildings is sufficient for present purposes, but needs repairs. Forty acres of the land are in cultivation and a large amount of vegetables are raised during the year. It may be proper to state that a proposition has been made by a gentleman to purchase a lot of two and a half acres, suitable for building sites, for $500 cash.

The total receipts, since the opening of the Asylum have been $56,253.60; disbursements, $56,160.37; leaving now on hand $93.23, which the honest Superintendent produced and exhibited to your committee. The average expense of each orphan per month is $5, and this evinces strongly the great economy and wise management practiced by Mr. Mills. The amount contributed by the Masonic Fraternity (exclusive of the Grand Lodge appropriation) was, for 1877, $1,480.79, and for 1878, up to November 20, $1,410 88. The amount received during the past year, from all sources, has been $7,350 up to the present, which though a smaller amount than heretofore, has been sufficient to carry on the Asylum owing to the reduced prices.

The following is a list of the officers and teachers: J. H. Mills, Superintendent; Mrs. Robards, Matron; Misses Long, Wills, Freeland and Clewell, teachers of the 4th, 3rd; 2nd and 1st forms, respectively; and Miss Jordan, teacher of vocal music, having charge also of the correspondence and books of the Institution.

The necessity for aiding our orphans so urgently appeals to every generous and humane impulse that we feel confident they need only to be seen as we have seen them to stimulate every Mason within our jurisdiction to gird his loins with renewed determinations of self-denial before abandoning a work which is rapidly becoming the Corinthian pillar of our mystic temple.

It is plausibly urged that charity begins at home, and that the sums bestowed upon this institution should be applied to the widows and orphans within the jurisdiction of subordinate Lodges. But does this complaint arise from those who are oppressed with private benefactions? We think not, and even were it true, are not the small amounts occasionally bestowed upon this systematic and organized charity better and more wisely applied than they would be if privately directed? Again, this bright example of practical charity in our midst is a perpetual appeal to all churches and benevolent associations and individuals in its behalf; for they have an assurance that their generosity, without exertion on their part, will be judiciously, honestly and faithfully administered.

Again, it is urged that there is no more obligation upon Masons to provide for the orphans of the State than there is upon other benevolent institutions, &c. While that may be true, we must not forget that we have been greatly aided and sustained by liberal donations from all sources. All denominations and nationalities, churches and benevolent societies have united in the common work, and contributed freely toward its support.

It is true that we set apart to this purpose a building which originally cost the Order over $30,000, together with 109 acres of land, beautifully and healthfully located near the corporate limits of Oxford, and in the midst of the most cultivated and refined society; and it is further more true that upon our shoulders rests the responsibility of abandoning or continuing the work. Furthermore, while the tax imposed by the Grand Lodge for the sustentation of this institution may, in some instances prove oppressive, yet it is well known that we have no Procrustean bed in our order to which every member shall be fitted, and that, like mercy, the quality of our charity is not to be strained, but rather, to fall like the gentle dews of heaven, blessing him that gives as well as him that receives. It is doubtless true that in these times of general depression and business stagnation, these exactions are in some cases onorous, but if we, blessed with strength and fortitude, feel the hardships of the times, with what crushing weight must they descend upon the widow and the fatherless, and how much greater must be their claims to relief from us? And if we can but tide over the present obstacles in our way, there will be pleasure in recalling any sacrifices made, and an impetus will be given to our noble Order, which will grow with our growth and strength with years.

It is believed that the number of inmates of the asylum must, on the score of hygienic considerations, be curtailed; for while they have been singularly blessed in health since the inauguration of this work, yet our space is not sufficient to accommodate over one hundred, for in the event of contagion or much sickness, there would be a sad deficiency of hospital room, and serious embarrassment might result.

No one will deny that it is primarily the duty of the State to provide for the destitute and unfortunate, as far as she can reasonably do so without fostering a spirit of idleness and dependence. She has been liberal and even generous in caring for her insane and for the deaf and dumb and the blind; costly hospitals have been built for their accommodation and great expense incurred for their support. And while we would not subtract one dollar which might be thus profitably employed, yet when we see that of the three hundred inmates of the lunatic asylum four-fifths are incurables, and that they cost the State about $250 per annum, as voters and tax payers we may reasonably inquire whether it would not be the part of wisdom to transfer these incurables many of whom are merely imbeciles, to some place of safety where they could be attended by inexpensive nurses and ordinary physicians, and apply a part of the expenses thus saved to the State to the aid of the Oxford Orphan Asylum, or similar institutions?

The amount required for clothing, sheltering and educating an orphan at Oxford is $60 per annum. The children are thus saved from temptation and crime, and given the means of becoming useful members of society. The incurable insane, who now costs $350, lives a life of inanition, without enjoyment to himself or the prospect of benefiting society.

We do not propose, however, to pursue this subject, but merely suggest the idea for public consideration. We do, however, recommend that the State be requested to aid in the Asylum work, but not to assist in the support or education of orphans who are the children of Masons; for those we propose exclusively to provide.

The constant discussion of a discontinuance of the orphan work has a deleterious effect, and we therefore recommend the adoption of the following resolutions:

1. No resolution looking to an abandonment of the Orphan Asylum work shall be acted upon until at the next annual Communication after it shall be offered.

2. No other orphan shall be received into the Asylum, unless for special reasons within the discretion of the Superintendent and Grand Master, until the number of the inmates shall be reduced to one hundred, and afterwards the maximum number shall be one hundred.

Respectfully submitted,

JOHN NICHOLS,
Z. M. PASCHALL,

EVENTS IN THE STATE.

NASH.—Wilson Advance: Two negroes, Wiley Brantly and Crawford Eatman, whipped a small negro boy to death.

EDGECOMBE.—Wilson Advance: Mr. B. C. Pope, of Edgecombe had a difficulty with a negro in Sparta last Friday, in the course of which he shot the negro in the leg, inflicting a painful wound.

PITT.—Greenville Express: Wednesday night, some one went to the gin house of Mr. J. J. Laughinhouse, and bored holes through the side of the flat room, poured kerosene oil into the cotton and set fire to it.

GRANVILLE.—Oxford Free Lance: Superintendent Mills estimates that hereafter the cost of each Orphan at the Asylum will not exceed $4 per month. This includes board, clothing and schooling.

WILSON.—Advance: Tournaments are now the order of the day. We learn that the young men in the Farmville section are making preparations for a grand affair of the kind, to come off on Tuesday Dec. 3d.

WATAUGA.—Lenoir Topic: A very severe storm of snow and wind visited our neighbors over the Blue Ridge Friday night and Saturday morning. In some places the snow drifted to the depth of from three to five feet, while the wind was very severe....Stock seems to be quite plentiful, if we may judge from the number of droves that continually pass through town en route to South Carolina and elsewhere.

FRANKLIN.—Louisburg Times: The series of meetings at the Baptist church have been discontinued on account of the bad weather. The Rev. C. Durham, who so faithfully assisted the pastor, Rev. C. A. Jenkins, left for his home in Durham on yesterday....On last Tuesday, Mr. James Qualls, ginner at the cotton gin of Mr. W. K. Davis, had his hand badly mangled in the gin.

WARREN.—Warrenton Gazette: An effort is being made to organize a military company at Oakville, and a call is made for a meeting....the Governor having refused to interfere further, William Jeffress will be hung here next Friday for committing a rape on Amanda Myrick, col.....A colored woman from South Carolina made quite a sensation here this week among the colored people. She claims to be a minister and preached at both of the colored churches.

NEW HANOVER.—Wilmington Star; The receipts of cotton at this port during the present season, up to Nov 29th, foot up 69,406 bales. For the same period last year the amount was 58,387 bales, showing an increase in favor of this year of 11,019 bales.....A quantity of cotton was burned on a shed on Thursday. Review: The new Board of County Commissioners, which is entirely Democratic, go into office on Monday next. This is the first Democratic Board of County Commissioners the county of New Hanover has ever been honored with.

CABARRUS.—Concord Register: The County Commissioners have prepared a comfortable building at the poor house for the demented paupers kept there....Thanksgiving Day was strictly observed in this town, business of all kinds suspended....There will be a meeting at the court house on the 9th of December, to discuss the question of a Graded School measure for Concord, to be brought before the Legislature.

CARTERET.—Beaufort Atlantic: While at the depot at Morehead on Wednesday night we noticed that the wharf was filled with clams, awaiting shipment to the Northern markets, via Newbern....Lieut. J. Buchanan of the U. S. Signal Service, is on a general tour of inspection of the Telegraph line extending along the coast as far South as Key West, and from thence, he will visit the Stations on the gulf as far as the mouth of the Mississippi.

MECKLENBURG.—Southern Home: The purchases of gold bullion at this point amounts to about $4,000 monthly.....Several horse thefts have been reported of late through this section of the State. Mr. Harvey Walker, near town lost one a few nights ago....Capt. S. B. Alexander, Master of the State Grange, is in attendance upon the session of the National Grange in Richmond, Va.....Amnesty expires with the present Fall Circuit of the United States Court. That Court meets here the second Monday in December.... The number of fruit trees that have been delivered at this point, this season, has been immense. Nearly every wagon that leaves town, carries with it a bundle of trees. It will soon be so that we will stop sending North for our fruit, for recent years have shown that we can raise just as fine right here.

DAILY NEWS.

ORGAN OF THE DEMOCRATIC PARTY

The News Building, No. 6. Martin Street

SUNDAY.....DECEMBER, 1 1 78

GOVERNOR Hampton is, we are glad to state, rapidly recovering from the effects of the accident received while engaged in hunting. His election to the United States Senate is almost undisputed.

CONGRESS will meet tomorrow, and there is a district forshadowing that the Radicals intend to force a debate in both houses on the "solid South," which they foolishly design making an issue. The Democrats should let them howl and make asses of themselves, unless they get too obstreperous, and then there is an abundance of material at hand to make them sit down and hide their heads with sham—if they have any.

THE British troops in Asia are speedily marching to the center of Afghanistan, without meeting any opposition of consequence on the part of the Afghan troops, who are retreating toward the capital. The positions held at present by the three divisions of the British army in the Ameer's territory are such as to secure for it an easy march to Cabul. It is very likely that the Ameer, feeling his defeat certain, may be willing to come to terms with England, provided Russian influence does not interfere, but it is doubtful whether England would accept any terms without effecting a complete surrender of Shere Ali.

The farmers in the South Carolina Legislature are vigorously appealed to by Congressman Aiken to change the existing fence laws, so that cattle and not crops, shall be fenced in. Several counties have found that it works well to prohibit stock from running at large, and the same benefits are asked for the whole State by an extension of the prohibition. It is thought to be poor policy that farmers should be required to fence in their $30,000,000 in grass, grain and roots from a few rambling cattle, sheep and hogs, worth but little more than their hides, and muzzled, yoked and hobbled, to their great discomfort. A twelfth of the year is estimated to be wasted in keeping up the fences, which denude the woodlands and thus cause disastrous droughts.

To add to the Virginia complication, the Legislature which proposes to meet next week intends to elect successors to the present circuit judges. Probably every one of these who isn't re-elected would insist that the Legislature hasn't any right to depose him, because it is not met in lawful session, and resist the man who claimed the succession. The result would be two men demanding recognition as judges of the same court, and confusion worse confounded in the whole administration of justice. As the Legislature seems bound any way, it is suggested that the Governor make a virtue of necessity and issue a proclamation convening it in extra session, which would relieve the doubt of its legality and prevent all disputes over its action.

AMONG the important measures which will come before the Senate at the approaching session of Congress is the bill of Hon. Clarkson N. Potter, passed by the House, providing for the transfer of personal claims against the Government from the consideration of Congress to the adjudication of the Court of Claims, which has about cleared its docket and can readily administer justice to the claimants. The Republicans do not like this arrangement, because these personal claims have been published by them as "rebel claims," and the New York Tribune constructed its tables for campaign purposes out of them, although very few of them can be classed among claims from the South. Mr. Potter's bill, if passed by the Senate, will knock away a good deal of Radical campaign thunder. These claims take up most of the time of the House, and should have been sent to the Court of Claims, where they properly belong, long ago.

One of the issues, if it can so be termed, before the people, is the questions of the banks, that is the National Banks. Those institutions have so long been looked upon as vehicles of oppression that the public keep ever a watch on their visible actions. It is not improbable that their grasping plans may yet bring them to grief. The refusal of the New York banks to receive legal-tender silver money, except on special deposit, is a disregard of law that must essentially prejudice them with Congress and the people. Bad as may be the laws of Congress, it is not the province of banks, which are the creation of like laws, to assume to nullify them. There is but one way to correct the errors in legislation on the silver question, and that is implicit obedience to the spirit and letter of the silver bill. The one great interest of the country that is now most exposed to ill-advised legislation, is the banking interest; and bankers can, by unwise resistance to public sentiment, inflict more injury upon themselves, than can all the agrarians and repudiators in the land. Banks are not strongly intrenched in popular favor, and they should appreciate the fact that the exigencies which called them into existence with special priveleges, have passed away, and in any battle before the people in which our present national banking system shall be on trial, the verdict would be overwhelmingly against the banks, and without any regard to the intrinsic merits of the issue. If the banking interests of the nation are wise they will serve capital and the country by advancing to the point that justice can call them.

Ex-Governor Seymour believes that, "as nothing can be worse than our present laws for the punishment of crime," there can be no harm in trying new plans. He advocates, in Harper's Magazine, the empowering of judges to impose "punishments other than sending the offenders to common schools of vice." While Governor he learned that the suffering for crime generally fell not so much on the offender as on his family, and he was led to fancy the following as an appropriate title for the criminal laws: "Acts to Punish wives and children of criminals." Punishments ought not to be restricted to fines and imprisonments, he thinks; but this is the nearest that he comes to explaining his plan: "There is no danger in giving magistrates the power over habitual offenders which parents and guardians have over minors—that of making them work, of binding them out, and of locking them up; and, in case of children, having them chastised rather than sent to jails. There is no reason to fear that this punishment will be used too often or too harshly. It would rarely be applied, but should not be made illegal, as it would give magistrates great control, and would do much to put an end to the bravado and swagger of disorderly boys which are admired by their youthful companions."

A movement will, judging from the tone of the State press, be made during the session of the next General Assembly to secure a general "No Fence" law. The practical test of this matter, in a county whose people are so thoroughly common-sense as those of Mecklenburg, cannot fail to show that under favorable conditions, which undoubtedly exist in almost all the counties of the State, the law is exceedingly beneficial. There are, it is true, two sides to the question, but on the principle that those measures are wisest which confer the greatest good upon the greatest number, the law is a need of the State. The outlay on fencing is one of the largest items of agricultural expenditure, if not in the way of money certainly in that of labor. Yet this outlay is made yearly and there are no prospects of abatement save in so far as legislation may intervene. Nor will such measures be harsh, as might appear at first sight, for by diminishing the expenses of farmers, the Agriculturalists will be able to dispose of the fruits of their farms at lower rates. It is hoped that the question will be fairly met and considered in all its aspects, and if it be advisable, then let it be put to a general test.

VEGETINE

WILL CURE CANCER!

PROOF! PROOF!! PROOF!!!

H. R. STEVENS, ESQ:—

Dear Sir,—About two years ago, a Cancer made its appearance on my face, left side of my nose. When I first noticed it, 'twas about the size of a pinhead (very small). It increased in size, and spread on my face until it became as large as a common cent. I tried all kinds of remedies, and advice from a physician. It was spreading, and eating into my flesh very fast. I was very much alarmed. I went to see a physician who cured Cancers: he did not give me much encouragement. It pained me very much; I suffered night and day. It would bleed at times very profusely. Everything was done that could be to try to cure the cancer. My brother had a cancer on his lip; he submitted to an operation, being well discouraged I was one day in Mr. Woodberry's apothecary store of this town. He gave me your pamphlet, containing many cures by the use of Vegetine. I found on page 18 where Vegetine had cured a cancer on a lady's nose. I then bought a bottle of your Vegetine and it proves a great blessing to me; I could see good effects from it right away. After taking three bottles, it stopped the spreading of the cancer about the edge; it checked the eating into my flesh. I could see it was gradually healing. I kept on taking Vegetine, the cancer slowly disappearing, until I had taken sixteen bottles and it completely cured it. It has left a large scar on one side of my nose; and I feel it my duty to recommend Vegetine to all like sufferers, as it is certainly a great 'Blood Purifier.' I am now sixty-three years of age, and Vegetine has greatly improved my general health.

Yours most respectfully,
WM. P. CLEAVES,
34 Federal St., Beverly, Mass.

We, whose names are annexed, can testify to the above, as Mr. Cleaves is an old resident of this town.

VEGETINE—For eradicating all impurities of the blood from the system, it has no equal. It has never failed to effect a cure, giving tone and strength to the system debilitated by disease.

Vegetine

CURED AFTER 20 YEARS SUFFERING.

READVILLE, MASS., Feb. 18, 1872.

H. R. STEVENS, ESQ:—

Dear Sir,—It gives me great pleasure to give in my testimony to the good effect the Vegetine has had on me. I have been troubled for seven years with an eating Ulcer on my shin-bone. During that time I have tried many remedies, but have not had it cured till now. Some three months ago it was very bad, so that the flesh was eaten into the bone, from a place as large as the palm of your hand. I was recommended by Mr. Tilson to try your Vegetine, and I did so. In taking the first bottle, it commenced to heal; and I have only five bottles, and it is all healed nicely, and I would cheerfully recommend it to all alike afflicted.

Respectfully yours,
WILSON SEARS.

Vegetine thoroughly eradicates every kind of humor, and restores the entire system to a healthy condition.

Vegetine

A VALUABLE MEDICINE.

CINCINNATI, 1877.

H. R. STEVENS, ESQ:—

Dear Sir,—I have used your Vegetine in my family, and know it to be, and can recommend it as a good purifier and cleanser of the blood. I have used several bottles; it is a valuable medicine.

Respectfully,
D. B. STEBBITT, Grocer,
N. E. Cor. Main and Franklin Sts.

Thousands will bear testimony (and do it voluntarily) that Vegetine is the best medical compound yet placed before the public for renovating and purifying the blood, eradicating all humors, impurities, or poisonous secretions from the system, invigorating and strengthening the system debilitated by disease; in fact, it is, as many have called it, "The Great Health Restorer."

SAVE YOUR HAIR.—The laws of Health and Longevity demand it, the customs of social life require it. The matter is of great importance in every way.

BEAUTIFY YOUR HAIR.—It is the surpassing crown of glory, and for the loss of it there is no compensation.

CULTIVATE YOUR HAIR.—For by no other means can it be saved and beautified.

LYON'S KATHAIRON,

Discovered thirty-five years ago by Prof. Lyon, of Yale, is the most perfect preparation in the world for preserving and beautifying the hair.

Besides being the best hair dressing ever produced, Lyon's Kathairon will positively prevent grayness, and will restore new hair to bald heads, if the roots and follicles are not destroyed.

It actually performs these seeming miracles, of which the following is

A FAIR SPECIMEN.

I had been entirely bald for several years, constitutional, I suppose. I used a few bottles of Kathairon, and, to my great surprise, I have a thick growth of young hair.

COL. JOHN L. DORRANCE, U. S. A.

In every important respect the Kathairon is absolutely incomparable. It is unequaled

1. To Cure Baldness.
2. To Restore Gray Hair.
3. To Remove Dandruff.
4. To Dress and Beautify the Hair.

BEAR IN MIND.—The Kathairon is no sticky paste of sulphur and sugar-of-lead, to paint and daub the hair and paralyze the brain. It is a pure and limpid vegetable lotion, intended to restore the hair by natural growth and reinvigoration. It is splendidly perfumed, and the most delightful toilet dressing known. No lady's or gentleman's toilet outfit is complete without Lyon's Kathairon.

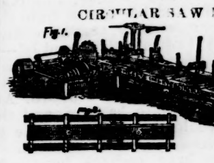
HEGE'S IMPROVED CIRCULAR SAW MILL

MANUFACTURED BY THE SALEM AGRICULTURAL WORKS, SALEM, N. C.
LEVER FEED CUTTER

CIRCULAR SAW MILL



Hege's Improved Circular Saw Mill, is no new a dnuntried saw mill, but is one that is well and favorably known in many sections, and wherever it is introduced it is fast superceding all others. It is simple in construction, yet reliable in operation, and is sold for less than any other first class saw mill. Send for descriptive circular

Lever Feed Cutter,

Something entirely new and novel in the feed cutter line. With this cutter the feed is cut off diagonally, instead of square across, as is the case with all other cutters at the same time our cutter has a draw cut, acting exactly on the same principle that a knife is used in cutting off a stick, consequently with our Diagonal Feed Cutter we can cut more feed with less labor in a given time than any other cutter costing twice as much.
Price reduced to $8.00. Send for circular. Liberal discount to agents. No goods consigned. Manufactured by the Salem Agricultural Works, Salem, N. C.

Bits of Fun.

None but the rich read their title clear. Most of them have put it in their wife's name.

In some parts of the West corn sells for so little that the farmers can't sell enough of it to lay in their winter supply of whiskey.

Brethren, before we sing the next verse of "John Brown's body lies all mouldy in the grave," let us take a look into the grave and see that it is there. In these days of Ohio medical colleges a cemetery isn't no safer than a savings bank, and it may be that political glee clubs who have been singing the song quoted above, have been chanting a requiem for the past fifteen years.

A German paper charges English manufacturers with being profitably engaged in the fabrication of idols. Its artistic designs and the excellent workmanship of the English-made idols make them very popular with the heathen, who are willing to pay liberally for them in preference to their own gods.

The New Orleans Picayune says that city is well drained, so far as its treasury is concerned. And it might have added that the city is well ventilated, so far as its politics are concerned.

The startling developments in regard to the adulteration of refined sugars is another warning that the people should take their drinks straight.

"Lemme down easy, Sheriff," were the last words of Mr. Griffey, of Tennessee.

According to Prince Bismarck the Russians are a peculiar people who order oysters in summer and cherries in winter, and when they enter a store ask of the shop keeper, "what is there you haven't got?

Russia's Hand Again Showing,

Washington Post.

Russia is about to begin a diplomatic campaign with England in relation to Afghanistan. Gen. Kauffmann has handed to his government a memorandum, pointing out how dangerous to the security of the southern frontiers of Turkistan it would be if the Khyber passes were permanently occupied by British troops. Gen. Kauffmann regards as groundless the British apprehensions of Russia threatening the northern frontier of India from Central Asia. This frontier is quite impregnable, while the British occupation of southern Afghanistan would be a standing menace to Russian Turkistan. The St. Petersburg cabinet, relying on this report, will ask serious guarantees from England that no changes will be made in the territory or independent condition of Afghanistan.

French Women-Men.

N. Y. World.

Paris just missed having an army of female warriors during the seige. Placards were posted announcing that batallions, each of eight companies 150 strong, would be formed of women of all classes, to defend the barricades in company with the sedentary National Guards, and "render to the combatants, among whom they would be distributed by companies, all such intimate and fraternal services as would be compatible with moral order and military discipline," and to take charge of the wounded. They were to be armed with light rifles, to receive 1½ francs a day, and to be uniformed in black pantaloons with orange stripe, a cloth blouse with a hood, a kepi with an orange band, and a cartridge-box suspended from a baldrick. In order to uniform and arm them, all rich women in Paris were requested to contribute their jewels and plate in preference to having these valuables stolen by the Prussians. Fifteen thousand recruits had been enlisted when the Government summarily suppressed the plan and its inventor, one M. Felix Belly.

Americans Abroad.

Springfield Republican.

The statistics of travel show that about 30,000 Americans go to Europe annually. Our consul at Wurtemburg, who has investigated this subject, places the average stay in Europe at two years and the annual expenditure at over $100,000,000. Both of these estimates are very much too high. Those who stay long are students, some attended by families and some not, but in any event not likely to spend lavishly. Travelers who have little time necessarily spend more per day. It is quite improbable that the country is spending a hundred millions a year in Europe. Mr. Potter thinks there are about 7000 American students scattered over Europe, estimating 600 at Stuttgart, 500 at Hanover, 200 at Berlin, 1900 at Paris, and 700 at London.

That Old Fraud, Grant, and How he is Exposed.

N. Y. Star.

It is impossible to disguise the fact that extremely unpleasant stories are traveling hither from Europe concerning the behavior of Gen. Grant. Did they relate merely to the escapades or adventures of an ordinary American citizen, they would merit little attention from public journals here. But Gen. Grant has seen fit to place himself on an exceptional plane; he travels as if he were a monarch who had just thrown aside crown and scepter for an interval of enjoyment unmixed with care; he consorts only with "blue blood;" and he insists on being recognized in an extraordinary sense as representing the American people. Of course all this aping of aristocratic manners and methods is supremely ridiculous; but it leads to painful results and misconceptions notwithstanding.

Here, for instance, is the Spanish journal La Patria, which calls him "a boor," without mincing or softening the harsh word. The Spaniards being a proverbially courteous and high-spirited people, we are naturally led to infer that only gross provocation could wring such an epithet from one of their newspapers in regard to a foreign guest. We are not left in the dark as to the reason. La Patria, after mentioning that Grant had been feted and honored wherever he went in Spain, adds that he decamped from Madrid the morning after the attempt upon King Alfonso's life, to all appearance so much afraid of forfeiting his railway ticket that he could not devote an hour to the cheap yet graceful act of congratulating the young sovereign on his escape.

Alabama's New Senator.

On Tuesday Hon. Geo. S. Houston, the retiring Governor of Alabama, was elected to the United States Senate, to succeed the carpet bagger Spencer. There was an active contest for the position, in which the leading men of the State were engaged, and it was only after the forty-fifth ballot that Houston, received the nomination of the Democratic caucus. The new Senator will be a worthy peer of his able colleague, Gen. Morgan. He has long occupied a prominent place in Alabama politics, and as far back as 1865 was elected to the position he is again called upon to fill.

DR. C. McLANE'S

FOR THE CURE OF

Hepatitis, or Liver Complaint,

DYSPEPSIA AND SICK HEADACHE.

Symptoms of a Diseased Liver.

PAIN in the right side, under the edge of the ribs, increases on pressure; sometimes the pain is in the left side; the patient is rarely able to lie on the left side; sometimes the pain is felt under the shoulder blade, and it frequently extends to the top of the shoulder, and is sometimes mistaken for rheumatism in the arm. The stomach is affected with loss of appetite and sickness; the bowels in general are costive, sometimes alternative with lax; the head is troubled with pain, accompanied with a dull, heavy sensation in the back part. There is generally a considerable loss of memory, accompanied with a painful sensation of having left undone something which ought to have been done. A slight, dry cough is sometimes an attendant. The patient complains of weariness and debility; he is easily startled, his feet are cold or burning, and he complains of a prickly sensation of the skin; his spirits are low; and although he is satisfied that exercise would be beneficial to him, yet he can scarcely summon up fortitude enough to try it. In fact, he distrusts every remedy. Several of the above symptoms attend the disease, but cases have occurred where few of them existed, yet examination of the body, after death, has shown the LIVER to have been extensively deranged.

AGUE AND FEVER.

DR. C. McLANE'S LIVER PILLS, IN CASES OF AGUE AND FEVER, when taken with Quinine, are productive of the most happy results. No better cathartic can be used, preparatory to, or after taking Quinine. We would advise all who are afflicted with this disease to give them a FAIR TRIAL.

For all bilious derangements, and as a simple purgative, they are unequaled.

BEWARE OF IMITATIONS.

The genuine are never sugar coated.

Every box has a red wax seal on the lid, with the impression DR. McLANE'S LIVER PILLS.

The genuine McLANE'S LIVER PILLS bear the signatures of C. McLANE and FLEMING BROS. on the wrappers.

Insist upon having the genuine DR. C. McLANE'S LIVER PILLS, prepared by Fleming Bros., of Pittsburgh, Pa., the market being full of imitations of the name McLane, spelled differently but same pronunciation.

DIAMONDS

IN SOLID GOLD MOUNTINGS.

ONE DOLLAR ONE DOLLAR

THE WONDERFUL LEFEVRE TRADE MARK PATD DIAMONDS.

Lefevre Ring, $1. Set of Studs, $1. [The Shah] Stud, $1. Lefevre Ear Drops, $1.

THE ONLY PERFECT FAC-SIMILE OF THE REAL DIAMOND IN THE WORLD.

Pronounced by the Academy of France that M. Lefevre has really obtained artificially the true diamond. The basis of these gems are pure crystals found in the Sierra Nevadas, from whence they are exported to the Lefevre Laboratory in Paris, France, where they are submitted to a chemical and voltaic process, imparting to them all the BRILLIANCY, HARDNESS, and refractive qualities of the natural diamond, and making them as desirable for Wear, Brilliancy, and Beauty, as the veritable gems themselves. The Ring, Studs, and Ear Drops, as displayed in this announcement, are accurate engravings of SOLID GOLD MOUNTINGS, CONTAINING THE WONDERFUL LEFEVRE DIAMOND, warranted by certificate U. S. Mint assay.

ON RECEIPT OF ONE DOLLAR we will send free, by REGISTERED MAIL, to any address in America, either article as above represented. Our "Book on Diamonds," with illustrations of artistic Diamond Jewelry in solid (14 k.) gold, mailed free.

I have seen many imitations of diamonds, but never any that could equal the Lefevre Brilliant.—M. ELLROY, Stamford, Conn.
I am in receipt of a pair of the Wonderful Lefevre Ear Drops, for one dollar; to say that I am pleased with them hardly fills the bill, they are simply elegant.—ANDREW MORRIS, Hornellsville, N. Y.
The Wonderful Lefevre Diamond Ring, for one dollar, came to hand this morning. It is really elegant, giving entire satisfaction, and eliciting wonder and admiration from all who see it.—W. H. REEDY, Martinsburg, W. Va.
The Lefevre Diamonds, mounted in solid gold, are truly marvelous.—B. F. AVERY & SONS, Home and Farm, Louisville, Ky.
The eminently successful experiments of M. Lefevre silences all doubt of the artificial reproduction of the true diamond.—M. DU FRENOY, the great French Scientist.
The Lefevre Diamond most effectually disturbs the slumbers of the possessors of costly gems.—Journal of Science.

☞ We guarantee the Wonderful Lefevre Diamonds for One Dollar to be mounted in Solid Gold, and will cheerfully refund the money if found unsatisfactory. Address all orders to the RARE CHANCE FOR INVESTMENT.

Valuable Property in the Heart of the City for Sale,

Will be sold at public auction, on the premises, on Wednesday, the 4th day of December ensuing the property on which I reside, situated on Wilmington street, within 150 yards of the Market House, containing in all about 4 acres of land, and lying beautifully for cotton lots. Besides the improved office lot, it has a frontage on the street of 160 feet, running back 238 feet. It is now the only desirable lot to be had near the centre of the city for compressing cotton which will pay any cotton dealers better than any investment they can make. Both Wilmington and Charlotte have tried them greatly to their advantage. Terms one third cash, and balance in one and two years, with 8per cent. interest. Apply to Jas. M. Towle, on the premises, or Messrs. Battle & Morehead, at their office. nov 13-tf

A CERTAIN AND SPEEDY

CURE FOR SCROFULA.

FACTS ARE STUBBORN THINGS

TRADE MARK TRADE MARK

(Registered.)

A BRIEF HISTORY:

The following is from the Raleigh News, and was a voluntary insertion and not an advertisement:

"Years ago an old Indian left a receipt for curing Scrofula with Mrs Person's father. Mrs. Person lives in Franklinton, or in that section. A child was born to Mrs. Person, and it had the Scrofula. The doctors gave it up to die. She thought of that receipt, that was now old and musty, and hid away in an upstairs drawer. She concluded if the child was bound to die, it wouldn't hurt to follow that receipt. She went out and gathered the herb, got the whiskey, and did as directed to the child. Her child now lives well and hearty. More than this: Only a few months since a South Carolinian, whose name has slipped us, was suffering with some scrofulous affection on the heel. He had been to the Hot Springs in Arkansas, and from there he went to Kittrell Springs. Nothing did him any good. At Kittrells they told him of Mrs. Person's recipe, and Dr. wrote to Mrs. Person if she cured that South Carolinian her receipt was worth money. And the South Carolinian sent her word if she cured him he would give her five hundred dollars. She sent him directions what to do, and added if they cured him he could send her twenty-five dollars; she wouldn't ask five hundred. The South Carolinian went home, and shortly afterward sent Mrs. Person a check for twenty-five dollars, and wrote the most grateful letter he knew how. Bless those old Indians. We would like to have one for a near neighbor."

UNEQUALLED AS A BLOOD PURIFIER.

MRS. JOE PERSON:

The medicine I purchased of you last winter proved of lasting benefit to my son, who was troubled with 27 running sores, some of them quite large, and of a scrofulous nature. In less than three weeks after commencing the use of your remedy, he was perfectly restored, and is to-day quite sound and healthy. As a TONIC AND BLOOD PURIFIER IT HAS NO EQUAL. Hoping that you may be spared for many years of usefulness, I remain,

Very respectfully,

T. J. STOKES.

AS A TONIC AND ALTERATIVE

MOORESVILLE, IREDELL CO., N. C.

Being desirous of adding my testimonial to others, concerning the merits of Mrs. Joe Person's Remedy for Scrofula, I take pleasure in saying that as a tonic and alterative I do not think it has an equal. I have fairly tested it, and after trying Vegetine, Sarsaparilla, Vinegar Bitters, and various other remedies, I have no hesitation in pronouncing it far superior to any TONIC I have ever used. When I commenced using Mrs Person's Remedy I was very weak, complection sallow, and now I am WELL,

Respectfully your friend,

MRS. H. T. BROWN.

THREE CHILDREN IN THREE WEEKS.

CASTALIA, N. C.

MRS JOE PERSON:

Dear Madame—Your letter has been received, and on account of being absent from home for a week or two, have not had the opportunity to answer it. I certainly will take great pleasure in doing all that is within my power towards getting you patients for treatment of Scrofula. I hardly know how to express my gratitude to you for curing my three little children. They took medicine from my family physician for about two years, with scarcely any relief at all. I tried your remedy, and in less than three weeks they were all perfectly cured, and have never shown any sign of breaking out again. I feel very thankful to you. I can safely say that I believe your remedy to be a certain cure for Scrofula. If I can ever be of any service to you in any way, I want you to be sure and call on me. Yours truly,

WM. H. ARRINGTON.

"It will Cure if Fairly Tested."

It gives me much pleasure to be able to state that I have derived an effectual cure of Scrofula from the use of Mrs. Joe Person's remedy for that disease. I had suffered from Scrofula for more than three years, and had despaired of eve. getting well. I was treated during that time by three very eminent physicians, without any good result. I then went to the National Surgical Institute, at Atlanta, Ga., and was treated there more than two months, with no better result than my family physicians met with. After I returned from the Institute I was persuaded to try Mrs. Person's remedy, and I had not used it more than a week before I discovered its curative and healing properties. My sores soon began to heal, and the color of my skin changed as fast as the sores healed. I had not thought of ever getting well again, but my hopes increased, my low spiritedness fled before the remedy, and I am now enjoying splendid health and am in good spirits. The remedy is mild as a purgative, and a strong tonic; it will heal the most stubborn sore in three weeks if taken regularly. It is my opinion that it should be taken some time after the sore is healed, to remove the cause of its effects. It should be taken regularly by all means, for I have sometimes neglected it, from the pressure of business, and in all cases found that the cure already made would commence to retrograde, and for this alone it should be taken regularly until an effectual cure is completed. Nothing should prevent regularity in the use of the remedy and it should be taken at the proper time. I would recommend to all who are suffering from Scrofula to try it. It will surely cure you if you give it a fair test. I speak from experience, and not from hearsay. I am a grateful recipient of a cure from the use of it and I am under many and lasting obligations to Mrs. Person for the great relief I have obtained from its use. Sufferers, try it and be cured, is my advice.

I am, respectfully,

JAMES A. MORRIS.

KITTRELLS, N. C.

My receipt for the cure of Scrofula has been tried by me with the most unprecedented success for the last twelve years, and I have no hesitation in recommending it as a sovereign cure for that disease and as a general Tonic and Blood Purifier. It is everywhere giving perfect satisfaction, while my experience with it is too limited for me to specially recommend it for other diseases, I believe it will ultimately prove to be of benefit in all cases arising from impurity of the blood and probably for other diseases.

A CASE OF CANCER.

FAYETTEVILLE, N. C., Aug. 12, 1878.

MRS. JOE PERSON:

Dear Madam—I have been using your Remedy for Scrofula over five months as an experiment for cancer. The cancer is of long standing, the doctors have been treating it, more or less, for twelve years, it has taken off my upper lip and a good part of my nose. When I began to use your Remedy it was growing rapidly worse, but the medicine seemed to check it very soon, and it has not made much progress since, except about two months ago, the medicine gave out, and I was without several days. It then seemed to start anew, and grew worse very fast, until I had taken the medicine about a week, since then it has not changed much. I think if I could have had the medicine soon enough, it would have cured me.

For more than a year before using your medicine, I was troubled very much with a disease of the heart an irregularity in its action. It would miss every third beat for hours, then at other times it would increase in its action, and run up to 200 beats per minute. Since using your medicine I am almost entirely relieved of this, rarely feel it, and then not enough to speak of it. I would recommend any one suffering with heart disease to try your medicine. As a Tonic and Alterative, I do not think it has any superior. I have been using all the most powerful Alteratives known to the medical profession for the last 12 years and I know of none superior to this. I think your medicine is destined to be a great blessing to the afflicted. Let every one that needs a Tonic or an Alterative give it a trial, and I do not think they will be disappointed.

Very truly and Respectfully,

JOHN LUIZ, Box 141,

CATAWBA—Hickory Press: The public meeting held in Clines Hall by the Good Templars Thursday night was well attended.

The Board of Canvassers.

Pursuant to adjournment the Board met at 10 a. m., Gov. Z. B. Vance, chairman. Council for first district were notified that the count would be entered into.

The chairman in declaring the action of the Board in regard to the second district, said: "The Board have considered the order of the Superior Court, and are unanimous in the opinion that by law they were not bound to obey the order, but in deference to the order of His Honor, Judge Seymour, the Board had agreed to adjourn until the 18th day of December, 1878.

The following resolution was adopted:

Resolved, That the Board of State Canvassers in deference to the order of the Superior Court do adjourn for twenty days from Thursday the 28 h day of November, 1878, and upon their reassembling on the 18th of December, 1878, they will proceed to discharge the duty enjoined upon them by the General Assembly.

Mr. Busbee here read an affidavit of Maj. Yeates objecting to the count of the votes of certain counties on account of irregularities in the returns and other matters in detail, and offering proof of fatal irregularities in certain townships if the Board should act judicially.

Judge Howard addressed the Board in behalf of Maj. Martin.

Maj. Gilliam then read an affidavit in regard to the election held at Hamilton, in Martin county.

Maj. Venable followed for Maj. Yeates.

Mr. F. H. Busbee argued that the duties of the Board were more than ministerial—that it held also judicial power.

The chairman inquired what would this Board do if a messenger were sent to the Boards below and they refused to send up the returns?

Mr. Busbee answered that the vote of the county must be rejected. When incomplete the partial returns cease to be evidence.

Maj. Gilliam argued, that the duties of the Board are ministerial.

The chairman—It is the opinion of the Board that its office is ministerial. The only power of a judicial nature delegated to it is to examine the returns and say whether they are returns or not. There are here what what purport to be returns from all the counties.

Maj. Gatling: I do not see that the law requires the duplicate of returns to be sent up under the seal, and sign manual of the clerk. There is no allegation that we have not before us the proper duplicates.

Mr. C. M. Busbee asked, how do we know that these duplicates came from the Clerk of the Court, as the law provides? The envelope and certificate sent down by the Secretary of State are no evidence because they are sent back. You have only one abstract from Martin. How can you proceed on that? There is no duplicate, as the law requires.

The chairman asked cui bono was it to send the returns back? It is not alleged that the true returns are not before us. There is an absence of even such an assertion.

Major Gilliam showed that the original, and what seemed to be the duplicate were identical.

The chairman stated it to be the unanimous opinion of the Board, that the returns from Tyrrell, Martin and Dare should be counted.

Mr. Venable—the returns from Pasquotauk cannot be counted as informalities, were expressed on the returns from two townships, and the County Board cannot be made to reassemble and count the vote.

Mr. Gatling—If the County Board cannot throw out a township return how can a State Board throw out a county return?

Mr. F. H. Busbee—The returns show that judicial powers were usurped by the County Board. The State Board has no right to pass upon their extra official action but must throw out the vote of the county.

Mr. Gilliam read authorities to support the view that unless the votes would change the result, there was no reason why they should be interferred with.

Mr. Busbee. If a return is defective on the face of it you cannot count it.

The Chairman announced that the decision of the Board was that the return from Pasquotank county be received by the Board.

The count was then continued and the result declared. Yeates 12,084 Martin 12,135. Martin's majority 51.

The Board then adjourned to December 18th, 1878.

Amateur Sportsmen.

A brace of drummers from Connecticut were at the Yarborough a few days past, and announced to the genial host that they were fond of gunning. Further inquiry elicited the fact that both claimed to be regular Nimrods, from whose unerring aim never a quail escaped. The host was eager to make arrangements for them to have a day's sport, and borrowed a gun for each. Fully armed and accoutered they were furnished with the locally famous Mexican dog, and told that he was a Texas pointer, who cost over $300. During the few moments before they left many stories were told them of the dog's wonderful powers, to all of which they gave implicit credence. They left at last and were gone until dusk. About the time of the gloaming the pair were seen returning, looking considerably the worse for wear. The boys gathered around to hear the details of the hunt. The senior sportsman said that the dog's performance in the field was beautiful. To this the junior assented, but said that they were not prepared to hunt with Texas pointers, as they had no horses, and the dog was so fleet of foot and keen of scent that he always flushed birds a half mile away. The next time they went they would be mounted and then their success would be unexampled. As it was, their game bags were bare of a bird. They were suffered to depart in peace, blissfully ignorant that the canine was but a sneaking Mexican coaca dog.

Having a more extensive stock of Furniture than our facilities would accommodate, we have found it necessary to enlarge our borders. We have opened a new store on Martin street, in the stand formerly occupied by W. A. Myatt, and will (in connection with our Fayetteville street store), carry a full line of furniture of every description. W. H. Morris & Co. *

Consignments of Cotton.

Our facilities for handling consignments of cotton are such as to enable us to guarantee the highest market price in every instance. Farmers will find it to their advantage to ship to us. Correspondence solicited.

* M. T. NORRIS & Co., Raleigh, N. C.

The "Old Hickory" brand is a sun cured tobacco such as could be had in ante bellum times. There is none on the market now that will compare with it. *

Music

Enchants the soul and brings joy to the heart. But Mendel's fine Havanas at domestic rates, tickle the palate and make you happy while smoking and wishing you had another. *

Reliable Groceries.

A. H. Baker exhibits at his spacious store on Wilmington street a large stock of groceries of every variety which he disposes of at bottom prices. No better place can be found to make purchases in this line. *

A Full Supply.

The complete store of Rand & Barbee Bros., Martin street, offers to purchasers of heavy goods and family supplies an admirable assortment of articles in that line. There is also a full stock of cotton ties and bagging. The firm is prepared to pay particular attention to consignments of cotton, etc. *

Go Ahead

You fast drivers who want to buy a four year old mare that can trot a mile in 3:10 without training. Call on A. C. Sanders & Co. *

Mr. Wm. Woolcott, among other things is driving quite an extensive trade in rubbers. He sold at retail over twenty-five pairs on Thanksgiving day. *

Try "Old Hickory" sun cured tobacco if you are looking for the finest that is now manufactured. It is an exquisite chew and a great treat for those who use the weed. *

Latta and Myatt.

Have in store and for sale at very low prices, good family and extra flour, all grades of sugar, a lot of new crop Cuba molasses, superior goshen butter, fine fresh cream cheese, a select assortment of crackers, 100 barrels N. C., family flour, 25000 pounds bulk C. R. sides, a large lot N. C. sides, shoulders and hams, 200 sacks Virginia bolted meal, 50 boxes tobacco, 200 sacks Marshal's salt, 150 boxes candy, assorted etc., etc. *

Elegant Vehicles.

A number of elegant and substantial top and open buggies have been just received by Kelley, Purefoy & Brewer, and are now on sale. They are of latest pattern and perfectly reliable. The firm also have on hand some choice seed wheat and winter oats, which are desirable. *

Wholesale and Retail.

L. R. Wyatt, Grocer, keeps on hand the best flour and bulk meats, which he is prepared to furnish in all quantities. He makes a specialty of the sale of cotton on commission, and devotes particular care to this branch of his business. *

Boots and Shoes.

Messrs. Cooke & Wainwright have just received a large stock of Boots & Shoes, which they will sell cheap. They also keep the Tennessee wagon. These wagons are made of first-class material, and are guaranteed to be all right and no humbug. They still sell the only genuine Wilson Plows. Cooke & Wainwright. *

Levy's champion shirts will please the wearer.

The National Hotel.

By some means unknown, a report has been given circulation that this fine house would speedily be closed. Never was there a rumor more utterly unfounded. The hotel will continue to be, as it has been, first class in its accommodations and living. The traveling public are asked to test the truth of this, and it will always receive a ready welcome. *

Choice Tobacco.

J. J. Sultan, of Newbern, whose fine cigars have won such a reputation in this State, is prepared to furnish them of all grades and prices, to suit customers. His goods are known everywhere, and are second to none in excellence. *

Fine Line of Goods.

At the elegant dry goods emporium of A H. Baker, on Fayetteville street, is shown an admirable and varied stock which is offered at very reasonable rates. Purchasers will do well to pay the store a visit. *

GRAND LODGE OF NORTH CAROLINA F. & A. M.

OFFICE OF GRAND SECRETARY,
RALEIGH, Nov. 9th, 1878.

The Grand Lodge of Free and Accepted Masons of North Carolina, will commence its 62nd Annual Communication, at the city of this City, on Tuesday, 3d of December next, at 7½ o'clock, p. m.

Officers and representatives can procure return tickets, on application, over the railroads, &c., at the rates herein mentioned, viz:

Six cents per mile for the round trip over the following:

Atlantic and North Carolina; Seaboard and Roanoke; Raleigh and Gaston; Raleigh and Augusta Air-Line; Wilmington and Weldon; Wilmington, Columbia and Augusta; Richmond and Danville (North Carolina Division); North Western North Carolina; Piedmont; and Charlotte, Columbia and Augusta.

For one first-class fare over the following: Western North Carolina; Western (from Fayetteville) Carolina Central; Atlantic and Charlotte Air-Line; and Dismal Swamp Canal.

It is specially suggested that return tickets, over all the routes mentioned are necessary, to prevent the payment of full fare except the Atlanta and Charlotte Air-Line over which Grand Secretary's certificate will be issued to return.

D. W. BAIN,
Nov 7-td1 Grand Secretary.

What Eminent St. Louis Physicians Say.

PREVENTIVE OF MALARIA.—Holden's Liebig's Extract of Beef and Tonic Invigorator is a very agreeable article of diet, and particularly useful when tonics are required, being tolerated when other forms of stimulant are rejected. In dipheria, ague, malarial typhoid fevers, and every depressing disease, its use will be attended with great advantage. We have prescribed it with excellent success. J. H. Leslie, M. D; H. Copp, M. D.; S. B. Parsons, M. D; S. A. Yancy, M. D; Drs. S. L and J. C. Nicolet; Wm. Porter, M. D; and many others. Sold by all druggists. nov 28-1m
